

GRIEVANCE

I. Procedure

A. It is important that grievances be processed as rapidly as possible, so the number of days indicated at each level should be considered as a maximum, and every effort should be made to expedite the process. However, the time limit specified may be extended by the College President, a vice president, or designee(s).

B. Informal Level:

1. Western Dakota Technical College (WDTC) attempts to resolve all grievances at the lowest level possible and therefore has established an Informal Level resolution process. If the aggrieved chooses to attempt to resolve the concern at the Informal Level, they must follow the steps below.
2. Grievances involving discrimination or harassment based on a protected class: Prior to the expiration of twenty-five (25) calendar days after the aggrieved knew, or should have known, of the act or conditions on which the grievance is based, the aggrieved must notify the VP for Institutional Effectiveness and Student Success who serves as the Title IX Coordinator or the Director of Human Resources. Within ten (10) calendar days, the Title IX Coordinator will determine if the concern moves forward under this grievance procedure or if the concern falls under Policy 2001/4001 and notify the aggrieved in writing.

All other grievances: Prior to the expiration of fifteen (15) business days, after the aggrieved knew, or should have known, of the act or conditions on which the grievance is based, the aggrieved must notify their supervisor and the Director of Human Resources in writing on the Grievance Form in the related Exhibit of their intent to start the Informal Level of a Grievance Proceeding. If the complaint involves either of those parties, the Grievance Form will be submitted to the noninvolved party.

3. The supervisor or Director of Human Resources will schedule a meeting with the aggrieved within ten (10) business days of receiving the request to discuss the concerns. The aggrieved may discuss the potential grievance personally or may request that a representative accompany him/her and/or act on his/her behalf during this meeting. The result of this meeting will be to determine if a meeting can be called with all parties to attempt to resolve the grievance at the Informal

Level. If yes, the meeting with all parties will be called no later than ten (10) business days from the date of the meeting. If no, the aggrieved must, within ten (10) business days from the date of the meeting, file a Level One grievance with the Director of Human Resources.
