Section 4 – Sick Leave (Eight (8) hour employees)

A. Purpose:

Subject to the conditions stated below, sick leave is available for all employees covered by this Agreement who are full-time employees. Sick Leave shall be earned at the following rate:

1. Full-time employees (8 hours per day)....sixteen (16) days per year to a total accumulation of one hundred forty (140) days;

a. A maximum of one hundred forty (140) days of sick leave may be carried forward in any new year. At the end of each fiscal year, eight (8) hour classified employees will be paid $25 per day of accumulated sick leave in excess of 140 days. Upon resignation or retirement and after ten (10) consecutive years of service, 50% of accrued sick leave will be paid based on the hourly rate at the time of resignation or retirement. Employees cannot borrow sick leave. It can be used only as accrued monthly as shown above.

D. Usage of sick leave:

Sick leave may not be taken in increments of less than one-quarter (1/4) hour and may be used for routine doctor or dentist appointments. The immediate supervisor may request a physician's statement concerning an absence of three days or more. - b. That returnee makes written application for reinstatement according to the Uniform Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA).
- c. That returnee submits an honorable discharge from military service.

Upon advance notice, a leave of absence shall be granted for reservists for training purposes. Request should be made on the regular leave form, and military orders shall be attached. Leaves for training will be granted without prejudice for up to 15 days without pay. Employees are encouraged to take these training periods during the summer session.

Section 8 – Worker's Compensation

Employees who are absent from work because of an occupational disability arising out of and in the course of their employment and which is compensable under the Workers' Compensation Law shall be entitled to draw against their accumulated sick leave. Charges against accumulated sick leave shall be only for that portion in excess of the compensation payment. Workers' Compensation payments received for the days when regular wages are continued or when sick leave payments are made shall be returned to the College.

Upon the exhaustion of available leave, the College shall be free, in its sole discretion, to place absent employees on discretionary leave. In the event such action is taken, the College is free to declare the position formerly occupied by the employee vacant and proceed to fill the same in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

Section 9 – Family and Medical Leave

A. WDT is covered by the provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). If the leave qualifies as FMLA under federal law, the employee will be entitled to use leave under FMLA. If the employee is not eligible for FMLA or wishes to take leave for a purpose that does not qualify for FMLA, the employee should consult the other leave policies set forth in this Agreement to determine if other leave might be available.

B. To be eligible for FMLA leave, an employee must have worked at least twelve (12) months for WDT, been employed for at least one thousand two hundred-fifty (1250) hours during the twelve (12) months preceding the commencement of leave, and must be employed at a worksite where at least fifty (50) employees are employed within seventy-five (75) miles of the worksite.

C. Under the FMLA, eligible employees may take up to twelve (12) workweeks in a twelve (12) month period for any of the following:

- The birth of a child and to bond with the newborn child within one year of birth,
- The placement with the employee of a child for adoption or foster care and to bond with the newly placed child within one year of placement,
- A serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the functions of his or her job, including incapacity due to pregnancy and for prenatal medical care,
- To care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter, or parent who has a serious health condition, including incapacity due to pregnancy and for prenatal medical care,
- Any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that the employee's spouse, son, daughter, or parent is a military member on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status.

Current definitions of qualifying exigencies can be found in The Employees Guide to the Family and Medical Leave Act.

D. In addition, eligible employees may take up to 26 workweeks of leave in a 12-month period to care for a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness if the employee is the spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin of the servicemember (referred to as military caregiver leave). An eligible employee is limited to a combined total of twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave for any FMLA-qualifying reasons during a twelve (12) month period.

E. Employees do not need to use their leave entitlement in one (1) block. Leave may be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. The employee must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt WDT's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

F. During FMLA leave, WDT will maintain health coverage under any group health plan in effect on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, the employee will be restored to their original or equivalent position with equivalent pay, benefits and other employment terms. Use of FMLA leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of FMLA leave.

G. Employees will be informed whether they are eligible under FMLA. If the employee is eligible, WDT will specify any information required and explain their rights and responsibilities. If the employee is not eligible, WDT will provide a reason for the ineligibility. The employee will be informed if leave will be designated as FMLA protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the leave is not FMLA protected, the employee will be notified of that fact.

H. Where leave is foreseeable, the employee must provide sufficient information to permit a determination of whether the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. The employee must also indicate if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. After requesting leave or indicating a need for leave, the employee will be given a "Notice of Eligibility" and a "Rights and Responsibilities" notice explaining the employee's eligibility and expectations. The employee may also be required to provide certification supporting the need for leave. The employee will have fifteen (15) calendar days to return a complete and sufficient certification.

I. When a complete and sufficient certification has been returned (or when the employee has otherwise provided sufficient information to designate the absence of FMLA), WDT will provide the employee with a Designation Notice that indicates whether the leave qualifies for FMLA and, if so, describe the conditions of the leave and the requirements for returning to work.

J. Generally, family and medical leave absences are unpaid, but the employee may request to use paid vacation leave while taking FMLA. WDT reserves the right to require that the employee use paid leave (i.e., sick leave, sick leave bank, personal leave) during FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave, the employee must comply with normal paid leave policies.

K. The employee will be reinstated to the same job or an equivalent position upon completion of FMLA leave, except where denial of restoration is permitted by FMLA. If the employee has exhausted all available leave and is still unable to return to work, the employee no longer has any job restoration rights under FMLA.

L. When leave is taken for the employee's own serious health condition, the employee is expected to return to work when released by a health care provider. The employee will need to provide a Fitness for Duty certification before returning to work if this requirement was indicated in the Designation Notice. The Fitness for Duty certification must be signed by a health care provider.

M. Termination of employment may occur if the employee fails to return from leave at the time agreed upon or if the employee is found to have taken leave on a fraudulent basis.

N. If the employee's job evaluation date passes while on FMLA leave, the employee will receive the performance evaluation upon return to work.

Section 10 - Maternity Leave If Not Eligible for FMLA

A. If the employee requests maternity leave and is not eligible for FMLA leave due to length of service, the employee shall inform their immediate supervisor as soon as pregnancy has been definitely determined, but in no case later than the middle of the fifth month, and with written notification of request for maternity leave. This notification will be accompanied by physician's written statement of the approximate date of expected birth. Leave due to childbirth shall not exceed six (6) weeks for vaginal delivery and eight (8) weeks for cesarean delivery. A doctor's statement verifying date of birth must be submitted immediately after its occurrence to their immediate supervisor. (Refer to WDT's Sick Leave Bank Policy)

Section 11 – Discretionary Leave

A. Any employee who has been employed by the College for five (5) consecutive years and has not taken discretionary leave within five (5) years of the request may be granted a discretionary leave of absence as provided for below.

All requests for discretionary leave must be submitted in writing to the President and must contain a detailed statement of the reasons for requesting the leave, the duration of the requested leave, and the date upon which it is requested that the leave begin. All such written requests shall be acted upon within thirty (30) days after the receipt thereof, and such requests may be granted upon approval of the President. The five (5) year waiting requirements specified above in paragraph one (1) shall not apply in cases of discretionary leave requested for health, medical, or job training reasons.

B. Scheduled increment adjustments in salary and other credits are not allowed for such leave; and, during any such leave, the employee shall not accrue seniority but shall remain on the seniority list and from the commencement of the leave shall accumulate no further rights for any paid leaves of absence. Upon approval of such leave, the College shall be free, in its sole discretion, to leave the position open or may proceed to fill the same.

C. An employee who is granted discretionary leave shall have the following reemployment rights:

1. If the discretionary leave does not extend beyond ninety (90) days, upon giving forty-five (45) days' advance written notice to the President, such employee shall at the expiration of the period for which leave was granted be reassigned to his or her original position; and

2. If a discretionary leave extends beyond ninety (90) days, upon forty-five (45) days' advance written notice to the President of his or her desire to return to active employment, such employee shall be assigned to the first available vacant position for which he or she is qualified. If more than one employee has given such notice, the employees shall be assigned to positions in accordance with the order of notice. In any event, all reassignments made hereunder shall be made within sixty (60) days after giving notice of request for reemployment.

D. Failure to return from a leave of absence upon its expiration date or within one (1) year from the date of injury or illness, or from the date of the leave request shall be considered as a voluntary resignation.

E. Prior to the return from discretionary leave, the College may require that the employee's personal physician certify that the employee is both physically and mentally ready to resume the regular duties of the position. The College may request an additional physical examination at its own expense by a physician of its own choosing.

F. Upon return from discretionary leave, the employee shall be required, as a precondition to reemployment, to complete the forms necessary to either request or reject insurance coverage.

ARTICLE VII. SALARY AND CLASSIFICATION
