

HVAC/R PROGRAM

WDT Core Ability	Program Learning Outcomes
Life Skills	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Embrace personal wellness in the HVACR industry through implementing work/life balance, accepting responsibility for actions, and practicing continued personal development
Analytic Techniques	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Evaluate HVACR situations for proper course of action by identifying symptoms, determining causes, and selecting appropriate solutions
Communication Skills	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Articulate work performed in HVACR industry through developing specific documentation, practicing verbal communication, and collecting information.
Technology Skills	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Demonstrate proficiency in emerging HVACR technologies by evaluating new technologies, employing technology to gather information, and utilizing current industry tools
Teamwork Techniques	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Practice teamwork in HVACR by identifying roles, managing conflict, and participating in problem solving
Social Values	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Develop awareness of diversity throughout the HVACR industry by identifying diversity and respecting diverse perspectives
Employability	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Establish employability skills in the HVACR industry through completing the EPA 608 exam, acting professionally, and prioritizing duties