

WDT Institutional Learning Outcome	Program Learning Outcomes
Critical Thinking	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Create a plan for acquisitions for library services through evaluating user needs, evaluating usage, and identifying product quality.</li> </ul>
Technical Knowledge and Skills	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Demonstrate proficiency in emerging information technologies by evaluating new technologies, using technology to retrieve information, and identifying online professional development opportunities.</li> </ul>
Communication	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conduct professional communication skills in library services by using effective verbal communication, developing listening skills, identifying nonverbal communications, and demonstrating accurate writing techniques.</li> </ul>
Professionalism	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Demonstrate professionalism in library services using the Code of Ethics of the American Library Association.</li> </ul>